Efforts should be made to identify the schools based on the uniform colors and style. 2. Identify "College Boys": The individuals in casual attire who appear to be instigating or participating in the fight need to be identified. Their age and attire suggest they may be college students. Further investigation into local colleges and their student demographics might be necessary. 3. Location Identification: The background shows shops and buses, indicating a public transport hub or a busy street. Identifying the specific location will be crucial for gathering further witness accounts and CCTV footage. Signs in the background (e.g., "TOURIST HOME") might provide clues. 4. Facial Recognition: Despite the chaos, efforts should be made to enhance and analyze frames for clear facial features of individuals involved, particularly those actively engaged in violence. 5. Witness Canvassing: If the location can be identified, canvassing the area for potential witnesses who may have seen the incident unfold or have additional footage is recommended. 6. Further Video Segments: If this is a short clip from a longer video, obtaining the complete footage is paramount to understand the full context, duration, and potential involvement of other individuals or vehicles.
